

Anastasiia Bielchyk

Legal assistant

+45 33 60 95 74

anastasiia.bielchyk@zacco.com

Copenhagen

ABOUT ANASTASIIA BIELCHYK

Anastasiia is a highly qualified professional with a comprehensive educational background. She holds a Master's degree in Law. She is knowledgeable in International, EU and Ukrainian law.

Since 2022, Anastasiia has been immersed in the field of Intellectual Property, working in a law firm in Copenhagen, focusing on trademarks. Starting as an intern, she swiftly acquired the necessary skills and knowledge, leading to her permanent employment as a legal assistant.

In 2024, Anastasiia joined Zacco as a legal assistant. Today she works at Zacco with Trademark Clearance Search, Trademark Monitoring and Watch, Trademark Oppositions and Trademark Cancellation Actions.

Anastasiia studied at Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv and Mykolas Romeris University in Vilnius. During her academic journey, Anastasiia broadened her horizons through the Erasmus exchange program at Stockholm University. She actively participated in mock interviews and moot courts, honing her practical legal skills.

Anastasiia's professional journey began through internships in state entities, courts, prosecutor's office, and ombudsman during her study process, where she gained valuable legal experience.

In 2021, Anastasiia successfully graduated, specializing in the Legal Regulation of Public Administration and Human Rights.

In 2022, she took classes in Trial Advocacy, Trauma-Informed Lawyering and International Criminal Law at Prague's CEELI Institute. During the same year, she also took part in the Intellectual Property Law and Practice: International and Regional Fundamentals Course organized by Commercial Law Development Program in Warsaw.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Services

Trademark Clearance Searches
Trademark Oppositions
Trademark Cancellation Actions