ABOUT CECILIA ARESTAD

Cecilia has worked with IP since 2018. She joined Zacco in 2026, where she offers counselling and legal advisory services across the whole IP law field, focusing especially on trademarks and commercial contracts. Her work involves supporting clients through various stages of protection and commercialisation, as well as the drafting and negotiation of commercial agreements.

Cecilia graduated in 2018 with a Master of Laws degree (LL.M.) from Lund University, specialising in Intellectual Property. Her professional background includes experience as an associate at another IP law firm and thereafter as an in-house legal counsel at a sports tech company, where she among others handled matters relating to general commercial law and various contractual and corporate legal queries.
