ABOUT INA BJERRE LARSEN

Ina has more than 25 years of experience working as a translator within the IP industry. Before her present position of team manager for the Zacco Translations Team and concurrently with her translation job, she also worked as a patent administrator and assistant to patent management. Today, in her daily work, she translates patent and trademark documents, including both prosecution and litigation texts, and she covers all language combinations within English, French, and Danish. She also translates from Swedish and Norwegian into those languages. Ina specialises in mechanics, electronics, legal patent and trademark translation, and she provides overall business support.

Ina holds a master degree in Business Languages in English (translation and interpretation), and a bachelor degree in French. She is a certified translator within the language combination English/Danish/English.
