ABOUT CAROLIN ECKERT

Carolin joined Zacco in 2018 and is working as an IP Translator and Team Coordinator. Her tasks include translating patent applications and other IPR documents from German and English to Norwegian.

Before re-joining Zacco, where she previously worked between 2013 and 2015, German-born Carolin worked as a translator for several translation agencies, specializing in translations for the automotive industry and other technical translations. She also has broad experience working as a project manager for Scandinavian and international clients.

Carolin has completed a three-year education program as an English correspondence clerk, translator and interpreter at Sprachen- und Dolmetscherschule des Englischen Instituts Heidelberg, Germany.

Carolin works out of our Oslo office.
