ABOUT THERESE HÖGBERG

Therese Högberg joined Zacco in 2021, having held Finance Manager and Group CFO positions across major multinationals. Her extensive experience within complex international environments places her in the perfect position to drive Zacco's finance strategy forward.

Throughout her career, Therese has quickly moved through the financial ranks across a range of industries including construction and materials, manufacturing, FMCG, and digital information and signage systems. Therese has worked for multiple listed companies, and today, she supports Zacco on our mission to transform the IP industry. Her role as Chief Financial Officer at Zacco includes laying the groundwork and ensuring the necessary financial structures are in place for scalable development in line with our strategy.
