ABOUT ALEXANDRA HALLQVIST

Alexandra Hallqvist joined Zacco in August 2021 and works as a Patent Paralegal. She specializes in patent administration, supporting the full lifecycle of patent filings and prosecution, as well as oppositions and appeals. Her work involves managing correspondence, filings and maintaining close relationships with clients and international agents, as well as onboarding both small businesses and large multinational clients.

With over two decades of experience in patent administration, Alexandra has developed extensive expertise working with a broad range of clients, from emerging companies to global organizations. She is also highly experienced in managing large-scale recordal projects. Alexandra began her career in the field in 2003 and, prior to joining Zacco, held a similar role at another intellectual property firm.
